MRS. BELLOW'S HAD FACTS

"The Garbage Question" as Treated in a Talk Before the Twentieth Century Club.

Upon the request of many who heard the extemporaneous talk by Mrs. George P. Bellows before the XXth Century Club, April 11, on "The Garbage Question," The Democrat-Forum is pleased to present her discussion as complete as possible. Mrs. Bellows supplied the place of Mrs. W. C. Pierce, and having been prevented by circumstances from preparing a regular paper, the talk was very informal. We are indebted to Mrs. Bellows for writing out her discussion of the question as nearly as she could remember it, which was as follows:

"The Garbage Question," as stated in our year book, appears a trifle indefinite to me. I do not know whether our year book committee wished the subject studied in reference to the management of individual household garbage or in the broader sense of a city's duty in caring for the loose filth accumulating where many people dwell together in restricted areas. Since in doubt I may express a few thoughts regarding both.

A definite idea of what constitutes garbage is the first thing to be considered. I should say old tin cans, buckets, boilers, ashes, cups, guttering, stove-pipe, rags, vegetable and fruit waste, broken dishes, brick-bats, glass, manure, decaying vegetation of all kinds, old shoes, leather gloves and much other trash of less importance might all be safely classed as garbage. All liquid filth would better be considered under the head of sewerage.

Knowing how the garbage question is managed in our own household, but wishing to learn something of what others were doing, and knowing the tendency of garbage to gravitate to the alleys, last Saturday I took our horse and buggy and drove a goodly portion of the day through the alleys of Maryville. I do not think a great many were missed in the inspection. Generally speaking I found them in better condition than I had been led to anticipate; not so bad but that they might have been worse, not so good but they might be made much better. The majority of the householders, into whose back yards I looked from the alley, were making some sort of effort to properly care for their garbage. Often the effort was most inadequate, nevertheless it showed a disposition to do the right thing, and, given the stimulus of town wide enthusiasm along this line, would doubtless progress to complete efficiency. There was usually an old box, boiler or barrel somewhere in the back yard partly filled with trash, particularly tin cans, broken dishes and glass. If this method was not used then such refuse would be gathered together into a pile in some inconspicuous corner of the yard. It was the minority that seemed to bring every useless thing to the alley's edge, give it a pitch, let it fall where it would and apparently forget it forever from that moment. Yet some

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Maryville Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys. If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in Maryville. Follow the advice of a Maryville citizen and be cured yourself.

Mrs. A. Weidman, East Thompson street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I had terrible pains in my kidneys and was also bothered by the kidney secretions. The contraction of a cold or a change in the weather was sure to increase my suffering. I used every remedy that I thought would help me, but met with indifferent success. I had about despaired of ever finding relief, when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Charles A. Love's drug store and found them to be especially adapted to my case. I was soon free from all aches and pains and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I have enjoyed excellent health since then and I know that my cure is a permanent one."

A Communication.

To the Editor of The Democrat-Forum:

I would like to ask people of Maryville and the Commercial Club, especially, through your columns why is it that when there is a job of work in Maryville of any note that they always send off for workmen and are willing to pay them 55 cents per hour for the same work that can be done here for 35 or 40 cents? Is it because the workmen here are such disreputable men that you are ashamed to have it known that Maryville has any mechanics at all, or it is because you think it sounds big to say we had St. Joseph or Kansas City men to do the work? Are you tired of the men you have here? and if so, please stop patting us on the back with one hand and giving the work out to some other town with the other. If you want the present lot of mechanics to leave town, why don't you come out in the paper and say so and maybe we can accommodate you. Yours truly,

W. G. GROSS.

"MESSIAH VICTORIOUS" CANTATA WAS GOOD

Whenever anything so meritorious is presented to the public as was the marvelous beautiful "Messiah Victorious," which was sung at the Christian church, Sunday evening, it deserves special mention in the daily press. "Messiah Victorious" is a wonderful musical creation. The words were arranged by Canon Farrar of the Church of England, and the music was written by the great English composer, E. G. Hammond. It was first sung in St. Paul's, London, six years ago.

It is highly classical, and very difficult, yet under the tireless and masterly direction of Mr. H. J. Becker, it was rendered by the fine choir in faultless perfection. The solo parts were taken by Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Mrs. D. J. Thomas, Mrs. Ralph Eversole, Miss Litta Roelofson, Miss Ola Smith and Prof. H. J. Becker. As the great choruses rolled up, breaking into seemingly discord, only to fly back and upward into perfect harmony again, one could see and feel the thrills that swept the vast audience which packed every available foot of space in the auditorium, galleries and aisles. The great organ never showed its capacity to better advantage than in its accompaniment under the skillful of Dr. D. J. Thomas, portraying earthquake, thunder, rolling of stone, opening of tomb, trumpets of angels and singing of celestial choirs. Taken in all, it was amazing music, the like of which, one hears but few times in a lifetime, and the talent displayed by the singers was a revelation to the Maryville public.

The two younger girls were discharged by Squire Johnson on the promise of Mr. Amos that he would send them to the home of his daughter up in Malvern, Iowa. Allie Amos was committed to the Industrial Home for Girls at Chillicothe.

PEACE MESSAGE STOPS ADVANCE

Telegram From Dr. Gomez Halts
March Upon Juarez.

BATTLE ON NEAR AGUA PRIETA

Report Federal Troops Caught Between Two Lines of Insurrectos at Cabullona, Who Far Outnumber the Government Forces.

El Paso, Tex., April 17.—The insur-recto forces reported as approaching Juarez have retired from that vicinity.
The sudden change in the program is said to have been the result of a telegram from Dr. Gomez, confidential agent at Washington, regarding peace.

Agua Prieta, Mex., April 17.—Insur-recto leaders here report that a battle was begun east of Cabullona, fifteen miles south of this city. The federal troops engaged are said to have been caught between two bodies of rebels, who far outnumber the federals.

Chihuahua, Mex., April 17.—Forty or more insurgents were killed and more than 100 wounded in a battle fought between Sanz and Santa Clara canyon, about fifty miles north of here, according to federal couriers. They brought orders to have hospital cars ready for federal wounded. The federals report five killed, but later developments may change the figures.
Several women and children are believed to be among the killed.

Anxiety at White House.

Washington, April 17.—Anxiety over developments in Mexico endangering the lives and property of Americans near the boundary line was plainly evident in official circles here. President Taft received bulletins at the White House from the war department regarding the advance of the federals upon the insurgent forces at Agua Prieta. Dr. Gomez was in constant communication with the insurgent junta at El Paso. He was advised that the insurgents had mobilized practically their entire army in Chihuahua under Francisco I. Madero, to within striking distance of Juarez.

Diaz Issues Call for Volunteers.

Mexico City, April 17.—A general call for volunteer soldiers to serve for six months was posted here. The call is made to all citizens between eighteen and forty-five years of age who desire to lend their services to the country. The pay is 50 cents a day, besides clothing and equipment. The customary inducement of advancement in rank and pay to those who prove worthy is included.

Salomone Writes to Pope

Sicilian Brigand Invokes Aid of Pon-tiff to Make Priests Keep Promise.

Rome, April 17.—Salomone, the Sicilian brigand, who, with two priests named Yasapoli, was acquitted in 1909 of the murder of the mayor of Barrafranca, is awaiting trial for other murders. He has written a letter to the pope, explaining that the priests were acquitted owing to his refusal to accuse them falsely of having instigated the murder of the mayor. Out of gratitude they promised him financial help to enable him to defend himself at the forthcoming trial, but this promise, he says, they have forgotten.

Salomone further implores the pope for pity and help and asks him to remind the priests of their promise. He assures the pope that he is innocent, but destitute, and asks his blessing.

The pontiff has communicated the letter to the bishop of Piazza Armerina, where the priests reside, with instructions that they be compelled to redeem their promise. The pope also wrote to the chaplain of the prison where Salomone is confined and asked him to bless the prisoner on his behalf and encourage him to rely on justice, for, if innocent, he is bound to be acquitted.

BANCROFT BOND ROBBERY

Former Trusted Employee of Firm Author of $85,000 Theft.

New York, April 17.—Another arrest was made in the Bancroft bond robber yaces in which Daniel O'Reilly, the well known criminal lawyer, has been indicted, charged with receiving stolen goods.

Harry H. Barrett, thirty years old, formerly a trusted employee of the Bancroft firm, voluntarily surrendered at police headquarters, admitting that he had hatched the scheme to rob the elder Aaron Bancroft of $85,- 000 in securities. He was locked up, charged with grand larceny.

He also gave what purported to be a detailed account of how the plans were made and how Charles Ross, alias Charles Murphy, and Chester C.
Yates, alias "Cy" Yates, alias George Wright, are alleged to have accomplished the actual robbery.

Jack Johnson to Serve Out Term.

San Francisco, April 17.—Jack Johnson, heavyweight pugilist, will serve the full term of the jail sentence given him for speeding his automobile in San Francisco. Police Judge Treadwell, on information that Johnson had been accorded privileges not granted to other prisoners, reconsidered his decision which cut off eight days from the champion's sentence. Johnson was to have been set free today.

SOME CLEAN ALLEYS

of this kind are with us. Some alleys for the space of a lot or two would be beautifully clean while directly adjoining would be a strip so carelessly kept as to almost counterbalance the good. Such conditions are very disheartening to people making an honest effort to keep clean and sanitary premises. Judging from the accumulation of rust on many of the tins encumbering the alleys, and knowing about the time required under ordinary natural conditions for such accumulation, I should say that hundreds of these cans have littered their alleys uncared for for years; some being nearly eaten up and crumbling with rust. While many of the alleys were most slovenly in appearance I found few that could be classed as strictly unsanitary. We all know that the sun and wind are great purifying agents and that garbage scattered and dry, while unsightly, is not strictly unsanitary. It is the moulding, decaying, putrifying garbage in heaps that is most menacing to the public health, especially in warm weather. Of these heaps I found many of ashes and manure. We all readily admit that ashes look bad.
However, they are the result of fire, and usually contain enough lye within themselves to render harmful germ life impossible. While they may not be unsanitary, their removal will contribute greatly to the immaculate appearance of the premises so much to be desired.

Regarding the piles of manure will say that, generally speaking, they were not large, showing that property owners were having this form of filth removed from their alleys at short intervals. A more exact care, however, along this particular line might be recommended. Directly encircling the square I found two blocks of well kept alley, two blocks indifferently cared for and two in bad condition; one of the two particularly so as it had, in addition to its other faults, an open and foul looking drain which rendered a portion of the alley muddy with its filth. The farther removed from the square the better conditioned were the alleys. I could not quite understand this, as it seemed to me it would be more difficult for the householder close in to care for his garbage than one farther out. Not far from the center of town I saw an open dump, covering a goodly portion of a lot, in which was all manner of refuse, cans, paper, bottles, manure, old furniture, even dead poultry with blue flies buzzing about it. I admire and sympathize with all property owners in their efforts to fill low lots and to make them at once more valuable and sightly, but it seems not quite fair to the public to fill such places with refuse that may become a menace to the public health as well as an eyesore to the community about it. The spirit is right but the method is questionable and should not be permitted within the city limits.

A little blue-eyed maiden was scrambling over this dump gingerly turning over bits here and there with her toe or a stick. I called to her, "Sister, whatever are you doing there?" "Oh," she said, "Some of the trash from an old burned drug store has been put in here and my brother found a bottle of perfume this morning, with the cork still in, and I am looking to find one, too." I thought, if she staid long, she would need it as a deodorant as well as a disinfectant.

The purest method of disposing of garbage is by fire. For flat dwellers about the square who have no yards, such garbage as cannot be consumed in their stoves, or not managed at all on account of furnace heating and gasoline for cooking, a system of garbage cans should be devised to be emptied and hauled entirely away daily.
Draymen should provide weighted canvas covers to throw over their loads to prevent wind from scattering papers and straw while garbage is carted away.

All persons having garbage that cannot be burned should have it hauled outside the city limits and used to fill ravines where it may become useful by helping to check injurious washes and will soon be buried by the natural caving of the earth after rains. Where the householder has more than one lot he has room sufficient that small pits may be dug for the reception of both ashes and slops.
A few boards will cover the top keeping out flies and wind and keeping in dangerous sparks from ashes. As fast as they become partly filled they should have a few shovelfuls of fresh earth heaped on top, making all pure and a new pit dug. They are best made small and filled often. When brought into direct contact with earth such garbage decays rapidly and in a few weeks all is merely earth, a little more fertile for the treatment.

A large percentage of the small household garbage may be disposed of in the kitchen range. Even vegetables and fruit peelings and waste may be so destroyed by using a little care to dry them first. In summer this is rapidly accomplished, slower in winter, but possible at all times to the willing worker for wholesome surroundings. Much of the coarser garbage can and should be burned in open air fires in the back yard where, in addition to the good of getting rid of the nuisance, you have the benefit of the ashes for the soil.

In the countries of the old world, such as we visited, we found nearly every household provided with its own garbage oven. Some of these were very crude, being made of clay, but, through many heatings, hard as brick.
Most were composed of brick, about 3x2 feet, and piled about three feet high. A few straps of steel served as a grate and were placed about a foot from the bottom. An opening was left at the bottom in one end for draft and to start the fire under the grate.
Sometimes a little brick chimney a little higher than the oven would be built at the opposite end. Sometimes a piece of stovepipe did duty. In others, less effective, a couple of bricks were left out at the top behind. The cover was a piece of sheet iron. Some of the more pretentious were made similar to our outdoor kettles of iron with fire appliance underneath. Into these receptacles all burnable garbage was placed and every day or two it was the duty of some member of the family to fire the garbage oven. Where there was much garbage they were kept almost continuously smouldering. Much that our people class here as waste, there is saved. It means money to them. Old rags and papers are sorted, colored from light and white, clean from dirty, sacked and sold to the paper mills. They are usually sorted first because such bring a little better price. When the housewife opens a tin it is rinsed and placed on the stove until hot enough to melt the solder. The top and bottom is then punched out, the sides opened and the tin circle flattened out.
These strips are packed in boxes and sold by the dozen to tin toy factories.
Only a good grade of tin is used for cans, so both the manufacturer and the housewife are benefitted. She gets something for her trouble and he gets a good quality of tin, suitable for thousands of the smaller toys, at a much lower price than when bought

TRAIN PLUNGES THROUGH CROWD

Three Killed by Jersey Central Flyer at Lakewood.

WOULDBE RESCUER LOSSES LIFE

Baggage Master of Local Train Rushes to Pull Aged Woman and Daughter to Safety and All Three Are Killed.

Lakewood, N. J., April 17.—The Lakewood flyer of the New Jersey Central railroad plunged through a crowd of several hundred persons about to board a local train at the Elizabeth avenue station here, scattering them right and left, killing two women and a baggage master, who tried to rescue them. The dead: Mrs. Ann Eliza Stone, Mrs. Anna Cosgrove and E. S. Saunders, baggage master. Saunders heard the oncoming express and shouted a warning which cleared the track of those flocking across it to the standing local train with the exception of Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Cosgrove. The latter, who was a daughter of Mrs. Stone, tried to assist her mother, whose step was slow because of age and infirmities.

When the express was almost upon them the baggage master leaped from his coach and ran towards them as if to draw them across the tracks. The train caught the trio squarely in the center of the tracks and hurled them thirty feet, mutilating their bodies.

CAUGHT BY MOLTEN METAL

Container Gives Way and Five Men Are Burned to Death.

Philadelphia, April 17.—Five workmen were killed, two fatally injured and twelve others seriously hurt at the Midvale steel works at Wayne Junction when a container filled with molten steel gave way, the liquid splashing over more than a score of the employees.

The dead: James Tobin, Patrick Perrill, Patrick Joyce, Patrick Meyers, Michael Panas.

Fatally injured: George F. Steel, superintendent; Patrick Cunningham.

The accident occurred in what is known as open hearth No. 1. Several tons of the molten steel had been poured into the container and it was being slowly propelled along a traveling crane across the shop to waiting moulds. More than twenty men were under and around it guiding the vessel with long tongs, when, without a warning, a plug in the bottom burned out and the molten steel instantly began pouring through the hole.

It spluttered and splashed over some of the men and they were compelled to let go of the tongs. In thus releasing their hold the kettle became unsteady and began pouring down a stream of molten steel. Seven of the workmen were caught almost directly under the full flood, but all except one, James Tobin, managed to get from under the container.

The physicians say there is no hope for Superintendent Steel and Cunningham. All the victims taken to the hospital were in a terrible condition. Their clothing was burned and in taking it off patches of skin and flesh came with it.

BOOM FOR HADLEY STARTED

Governor of Missouri Asks Friends to Stop Plan to Put Name Before Public.

Kansas City, April 17.—Cries of "Hadley for president" and "Hadley in 1912" greeted the governor when he arose to address the young Republicans of Missouri at a dinner the organization gave here.

An organized effort had been made to have Governor Hadley's name put before the public as aspirant for the Republican nomination in 1912. When he heard of the incipient boom that had been launched, when he arrived here he requested his friends to squelch it.

More than 300 persons were present. The meeting was opened by John D. McNeely of St. Joseph, president of the organization. Mayor Darius A. Brown of Kansas City and Hiram Lloyd of St. Louis spoke. Lloyd was elected president of the association for the ensuing year.

Will Study Gout Cause.

Washington, April 17.—The public health service is about to begin an extended study of gout to learn the cause of epidemics of the disease now existing in various parts of the country. One locality in Utah has been found where every woman is a sufferer.

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR.

There is nothing more effective of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." When their hair fell out or took on a faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderful beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, slow method of seething the herbs and making tea. This is done by skilled chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product. West's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by Koch Pharmacy.
